

PUTNAM COUNTY HERALD

VOLUME IX.

COOKEVILLE, TENNESSEE, THURSDAY, MARCH 23, 1911.

NUMBER 12.

.SPRING OPENING.

Tuesday - Wednesday - Thursday
MARCH 28, 29, 30

Spring, with its wealth of beauty and dainty colors, does not surpass the mingled hues and shades of this season's new millinery and wearing apparel. You will enjoy the fine display of really worth while millinery and wearables that we have opened for your approval. It's a style show of all those clever conceits—those charming innovations, that a capricious fashion bestows on woman. We want you to see this display. Come! Be our guest.

Handsome Tailored Suits
Beautiful Dress Goods and Trimmings
Dainty Lingerie Waists
Nobby Skirts and Embroideries

Our Spring showing in Men's, Ladies' and Children's Wear is ready for your inspection. Special Prices made on every article during opening days.

FASHIONABLE MILLINERY

Rarely has it been our pleasure to show the ladies in and around Putnam County such a large and handsome line of millinery, Miss Sara Henson, designer. Miss Henson, Mrs. J. P. Hamilton and assistants will be pleased to show you millinery.

Pincus Bros.

Cookeville's Leading Store

We pay your railroad fare on purchases of $20.00

